DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of group II, specie 1, figures 1-2, claims 9, 11-13 and 17-18, in the reply filed on 1/14/2008 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that examining claims 1-9 and 11-18 can be made without serious burden on the examiner. This is not found persuasive because claims 1-8 require search and/or consideration in other class/subclass. Claims 9, 11-13 and 17-18 will be examined herewith.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 9, 11-13 and 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 9, applicant should clarify the structure/arrangement of the power supply lines. Applicant should clarify what is intended by "wherein a magnetic field of the first loop is substantially compensated by a combined magnetic field of the second loop and the power supply lines." The term "substantially" is a relative term.

Regarding claim 11, applicant should clarify the configuration in order to "reduce a magnetic field out side of the first loop and the second loop."

Regarding claim 13, applicant should clarify the structure/arrangement of the power supply lines intended by "extend away from opposite sides of the second loop."

Regarding claim 18, applicant should clarify what intended by "wherein a magnetic field of the first loop is substantially compensated by a combined magnetic field of the second loop and the power supply lines." It seems like these feature(s) already in claim 9. Applicant should clarify. The term “substantially” is a relative term.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 9, 11-13 and 17-18, as best understood in view of the rejection under 35 USC 112 second paragraph, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Klaus et al. [US 5,245,307] in view of Tanigawa et al. [JP 06-053044].

Klaus et al. discloses a planar inductance device [figures 1-3] comprising spiral planar windings wherein each winding is in the form of an “eight” with three cross conductors carrying current in the same direction and running between two loops.

Klaus et al. discloses the instant claimed invention except for the specific of the power supply lines.

Tanigawa et al. discloses a planar coil structure comprising a plurality of conductive loops and a plurality of power supply lines [4a, 4b] extending from opposite sides of the loops.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to use the power supply lines design of Tanigawa et al. in Klaus et al. for the purpose of facilitating connection and improving magnetic characteristics.

Regarding claim 11, the structure of Klaus et al. in view of Tanigawa et al. would be configured to reduce a magnetic field outside the first and second loops.

Regarding claim 13, the specific location/arrangement of the power supply lines relative to the second loop would have been an obvious design consideration for the purpose of improving magnetic flux/field.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
